

The database also records the date at which a book copy is borrowed and the date at which it is returned. We refer to this information as a loan record. Obviously, a student can only borrow or lend book after he/she is enrolled.