The database records the name, faculty, and department of each student. Each student is identified in the system by his/her email. The database also records the date at which the student joined the university. If a student has graduated, the database record the date of graduation. A department in NUN must belong to exactly one faculty.